SPONSORED BY THE WOMEN'S GUILD

Bring a dish to share and enjoy the friendship of our fellow parishioners. This evening is open to adult members of our Parish and their guests and is strictly for fun! We will enjoy a Potluck Dinner followed by Karaoke for entertainment. Please bring your own libations and mixers or beverage of choice. Coffee will be provided. Contact Brenda Segura (395-1895) or Kay Kiefer (472-3863 or kieferpk@comcast.net) with your choice of a main dish, salad, vegetable or dessert or for further information. You also may sign up in the Church Narthex for this event. Volunteers are also needed for set-up and clean-up.

The next meeting of the Women's Guild will take place on Thursday, March 9, 2012 at 9:30 in the Parish Hall. The General Meeting will include the Nomination of Officers for the 2012-2013 season. Following the meeting, there will be a presentation by Genny Gray entitled "Considering Baskets". Also, you may renew your membership or join the Guild as a new member at any monthly meeting. Annual dues are still just $15.00!

The Women's Guild wishes to thank all those who attended the Second Annual Mass and Breakfast on January 19. Special thanks to Fr. Christopher for the beautiful Liturgy; to Justin Cowan for sharing his musical talents; to Hostesses Mame Byrne, Liz Clark, Jacque Cramer and Laurie LaManna and to Head Chef Frank Gallo and his great assistants who prepared breakfast for the nearly 100 ladies who attended.

St. Isabel's Parish Sacramental Policies

Sanibel is a beautiful place, and St. Isabel is a lively parish. Because of this, we often receive requests from people who are not registered members of our parish community to celebrate baptisms or "destination weddings" here on Sanibel. Sacraments are customarily meant to be celebrated in the context of an active faith community. The celebration of any sacrament presumes the practice of the faith, which, in the case of baptism, gives the church every assurance that the child to be baptized will be raised Catholic. It does a disservice to the sacrament when it is celebrated without the serious intention of practicing one's faith. Parish registration helps to insure that individuals are an active part of a faith community, and affords them the opportunity to be a support to that faith community, not only through their financial contributions but also through their active participation. It is because of this broader theological understanding of the sacraments that St. Isabel only accepts requests for baptisms and weddings from registered and active parishioners. Sacraments (baptisms and weddings) are not normally scheduled until six months after someone has registered.

Please join us on Fridays during March for the study of Jesus – Synoptic Gospels. This course will be offered after Mass at 9:30 in Parish Hall. More information to follow.

At the beginning of each new month, you will need to call the parish office to continue to keep a name on the list. This helps the prayers of our parishioners to keep the list up to date and be more specific with prayer requests. Thank you for your cooperation and assistance in this important ministry.

Offering Envelopes for Parishioners

Having offertory envelopes is a good idea, for several reasons: They are pre-printed with only an account number (no name and address), so you can give anonymously. They allow our office to prepare an annual statement for tax purposes. As your donation at Mass is a "gift" to the community, your envelope serves as your donation's "gift wrap." To receive envelopes for adults, simply contact the parish office. 2012 Offertory envelopes are available in the parish office. Please help us save on the cost of postage by stopping by the parish office during normal business hours to pick up your envelopes. Thank you!

SHARE YOUR BLESSINGS

Hispanic Services of Catholic Charities needs our help to stock their food pantry. Some of the basic food commodities needed are: rice, dry beans, pasta, cereal, macaroni and cheese, canned meats and fish, tomato sauce, cooking oil and corn flour. Baskets have been placed in the Narthex for canned goods and non-perishable food donations. Thank you for your generosity.

Silent Auction

If you would like to donate an item for this event, it would be appreciated. Such items for consideration would be a week at a condominium/vacation home, an object of art, or other suitable items for our themed baskets. When submitting such items, please advise the fair retail value of the item.

2012 Annual Orchid Ball

Benefiting the CFA for Saint Isabel Parish

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Our 2012 Annual Orchid Ball will be held at the St. Isabel Parish in our Parish Center on Friday, February 24, 2012. This event is very important to St. Isabel, because it benefits the CFA for our parish. This assessment is paid to the Diocese of Venice for various community charitable activities.

Once again, we will continue to have a Silent Auction as part of the festivities. We appreciate our parishioner's and visitor's support of this activity by purchasing items from the local merchants and donating the items to the church for use in baskets. When you purchase items, let the merchant know you are doing this for the St. Isabel Silent Auction and thank them for their support of past Charity Balls. See the following basket themes for items you might wish to purchase. If you can't purchase an item for the basket you might think of making a monetary donation for a specific basket theme.

Our Silent Auction was a record breaking success last year! In addition to the great baskets, we had beautiful pieces of art by local artists and parishioners, beautiful quilts, hand painted furniture, hand beaded jewelry, and wonderful handmade items to auction! Please consider giving your own unique work of art! If you are an artist or have a special talent like painting, sculpting, photography, woodwork, jewelry making, hand painted bowls or items, knitting, crochet, quilting, basket weaving, etc. we would love a donation to our auction. In the past we have had many generous artisans who have donated these types of items; they are very popular at the auction! Please call the parish office at 472-2763 if you would like to donate an item to our auction.

We are looking forward to a very successful event this year! Please join us for our 2012 Annual Orchid Ball. Tickets can be purchased for $125.00 per person.

Sincerely,

Rev. Christopher Senk
Pastor
